- Aggressive dogs will not be tolerated and will be excused from the trial.
- The show committee has the right to refuse any entry. Anyone not currently in good standing with NADAC will not be allowed to enter this trial.
- Exhibitors, through submission of entry, acknowledge that they are knowledgeable of NADAC rules and regulations, and agree to abide by all rules in effect at the time of this trial.
- No entry fee will be refunded if the trial cannot open or be completed by reasons of riots, civil disturbances, fire, acts of God, public emergency, an act of a public enemy, or any other cause beyond the control of the organizing committee.

- A copy of the current Exhibitors Handbook may be downloaded free from the NADAC web site: www.nadac.com
- Bitches in heat, lame, or blind dogs are ineligible for entry, as is any dog with a deformity which may cause a judge to not be able to reasonably assess the dog's ability to function and perform agility obstacles safely, and in a manner that is in the best interest, health and welfare of the dog.
- No food, clickers, or other aids or devices shall be permitted on the course or within 10 feet of the ring. Please read the Exhibitor's Handbook for more information about toys and training in the ring.
- The sponsoring clubs will not be responsible for the loss or damage to any dog exhibited, or for the possessions of any exhibitor whether the result be accident or other cause. It is distinctly understood that every dog at this event is in the care and control of his owner or handler during the entire time the dog is on the show premises.

Trial Code of Conduct

JCAC trials are designed to be a fun, safe, and neutral environment, free from the everyday challenges and stresses of life. Handlers come to enjoy competing in agility with their dogs and fellow handlers. Playful banter, humor, and comical attire, as long as it's in good taste, are all acceptable at all JCAC trials.

However, unsportsmanlike behavior, including harassment of trial personnel or fellow competitors, and apparel or signage that includes hate speech, crude/vulgar language, strong political views, or anything else deemed in poor taste, will not be tolerated on trial grounds. Each case will be discussed by the Trial Committee members. If the Committee's findings result in a violation of the club's trial Code of Conduct, the person or people may be dismissed from the trial grounds. Depending on the severity of the violation, additional actions may be taken by JCAC and/or NADAC.
