

JCAC September 12, 2012 Membership Minutes

Meeting called to order at 7:00pm by Wendy Hultsman

June 2012 minutes have been approved

Treasurer

- US Bank $4591.34, Sterns (formerly Copperstar) $2,638.02 & JH $2,911.38

Membership

- 178

Website

- Website should be live in a couple weeks. Meeting attendees looked at the info and suggested add/deletes/changes that Wendy Hultsman will be sending to Greg.

Marketing

- Scott Bagger has the flyers about 75% complete and other marketing items are in the works such as business cards.

Merchandise

- Connie LaBaun sent Wendy Hultsman photos of current items available to show on website. She is also working on seeing what other items may be available in the future.

Equipment

- Julie Grant provided insurance info on Trailers and the stored equipment inside them. There is sufficient coverage for the equipment and will obtain an Inland Marine policy to cover the trailers only.

Training

- Class applications are coming in
- Have a good turnout of instructors lined up for the upcoming session
- Chances seminar was held September 23rd
- The Tuesday of Thanksgiving week will be a fun run. Those that help switch out trailer equipment will run for free
- Attendance during the summer fun runs/seminars has been down, most likely due to the weather

Shows/Seminars

- In February we have Marj Vincent coming in to judge the JH trial and then a one day, one ring regular trial at the PATCH the next day.
- The Lickity Spilt award and JH raffle will be held during the November JCAC NADAC show.
- In 2013 the show calendar dates are off. All other clubs have agreed to move their shows by one week and the JCAC Thanksgiving and December shows will be held on the normal weekends
- The PAWS show has received approval from AKC and will be held January 18-20, 2013.
- After the Superstition show is complete, will revisit the pricing structure of the AKC shows.

Next meeting October 15, 2012
